About this Education Seminar

Partnership Document by Jake Andrew Suitable for experienced players

An ABF system card is just the bare bones – that which you are required disclose. A winning edge comes from a comprehensive partnership document. This practical workshop guides you through why, when, and how to build a bulletproof system file. Learn efficient bidding notation, logical structure, and easy principles to keep you and your partner on the same page. Minimise misunderstandings and keep a happy partnership.

Key takeaways: (i) Why an ABF card isn't enough for pairs wanting to improve. (ii) Step-by-step layout for a clean partnership system document. (iii) Bidding notation shorthand to save time and prevent confusion.

You don't need to have a partner. All are welcome.
